Global income distribution in 1800, 1975, and 2015 Our World in Data

Income is measured by adjusting for price changes over time and for price differences between countries (purchasing power parity (PPP) adjustment). These estimates are based on reconstructed National Accounts and within-country inequality measures. Non-market income (e.g. through home production such as subsistence farming) is taken into account.

The number of people in extreme poverty – including projections to 2030

Extreme poverty is defined by the ‘international poverty line’ as living on less than $1.90/day. This is measured by adjusting for price changes over time and for price differences between countries (PPP adjustment). From 2015 to 2030 the World Bank’s projections are shown.

Conseguenze dell'allevamento intensivo

L'allevamento intensivo gioca un ruolo molto importante anche nella causa del cambiamento climatico per via delle emissioni nocive (GHG).

Si stima che la zootecnia produca all'anno 7,1 gigatonnellate dell'equivalente di diossido di carbonio (CO₂-eq), che rappresenta ben il 14.5% di tutte le emissioni prodotte dall'attività umana.

AI safety & policy

We think solving the AI control problem is one of the world's most important and neglected research questions. The development of powerful AI also brings major political and social challenges. AI policy is fast becoming an important area, but policy-makers are mostly focused on short-term issues like how to regulate self-driving cars, rather than the key long-term issues such as the geopolitical and existential risks associated with the technology.

What follows are some of the best job openings within the leading organisations that undertake technical research relevant to the control

Giving What We Can

PLEDGE TO GIVE

I recognise that I can use part of my income to do a significant amount of good.
Since I can live well enough on a smaller income, I pledge that from now until the day I retire
I shall give 10% of what I earn to whichever organisations can most effectively use it to improve the lives of others, now and in the years to come.
I make this pledge freely, openly, and sincerely.
